The Clerk Guaranteed It

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. For sale by Safford Drug Co. adv-25-41

Made Gun Play; Lands in Jail

About four o'clock Saturday afternoon, an affair which might have proved to be very serious, happened just west of Pima at Chas. Ferrin's hay barn.

While trying to effect a settlement with a Mexican, by the name of Jesus Gonzales, Ether Ferrin unexpectedly had the privilege of looking down the business end of a 38 calibre Colt automatic pistol. By the timely interference of other parties, a probable tragedy was averted and the Mexican made his getaway, while Mr. Ferrin went in search of an officer.

Constable John Beal was notified and was just taking up the hunt for the fugitive, when he was joined by County Ranger R. F. McBride. The two officers took up the trail and after an hour's diligent search, succeeded in locating their man in a cornfield on the Eyring place, about a mile from town. The Mexican was taken by surprise and surrendered without any resistance, although he was armed with the automatic pistol, loaded and ready for action.

He was at once disarmed and taken before Justice Holliday, who set his hearing for Monday, August 16th, when he was taken before Justice Holliday and given a hearing, which resulted in his being held under a bond of $1,000, in default of which he was landed in the county boarding house to await the pleasure of the Superior Court.

Gun plays are out of date in Graham county.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Hannah Charlson, mother of our respected citizen, Hyrum Charlson, died Monday evening after a long illness.

Grandma Charlson was 80 years of age. About a month ago she had a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered. She had been feeble for several years, during which she had the most tender care from her son and family, at whose home she died.

Funeral services were held at the church Wednesday afternoon, with a large attendance. The house had been prettily draped in white bunting for the occasion. Members of the choir furnished the singing. The speakers paid the highest tributes to the life of Mrs. Charlson.

The remains were interred in the Thatcher cemetery besides those of her husband, the late H. N. Charlson. The entire community will miss her loving deeds and cheerful face.
